

Cookie & Privacy Policy for:

PsychologyTuition.com

BiteSizedPsych.com

This cookie policy relates solely to all the above websites owned and operated by PsychologyTuition.com.

Cookie Policy:

What are cookies (generally)?

Cookies are simple text files that are stored on your computer or mobile device by a website's server.

Each cookie is unique to your web browser.

It will contain some anonymous information such as a unique identifier, website's domain name, and some digits and numbers.

What types of cookies are there?

Necessary cookies:

Necessary cookies will allow websites to offer you the best possible experience when accessing and navigating through a website and using its features.

For example, cookies let the website recognize that you have created an account and have logged into that account.

Functionality cookies:

Functionality cookies let websites operate their site in accordance with the choices you make.

For example, websites will recognize your username and remember how you customized the site during future visits.

Analytical cookies:

These cookies enable a website and third-party services to collect aggregated data for statistical purposes on how visitors use the website.

These cookies do not contain personal information such as names and email addresses and are used to help the website owner(s) to improve your user experience of the website.

What cookies do we use?

Absolutely none!

We don't use ANY trackers or analytics like Google analytics, or indeed issue any cookies of our own.

However, when using links from our website to a third-party website, over which we obviously have no control, it may well be that the third party may use cookies. Please read the policy relating to that particular website if you are concerned.

Are cookies dangerous?

Generally, and in the main NO! But the main worry these days is with privacy due to the content they MAY contain.
